

BeneServ Wins Customer Service Award

BeneServ Corporate Benefit Services recently received the 2005 Customer Service Award from the Center City Proprietors Association.

The award was presented to BeneServ for “providing responsive, friendly, and knowledgeable staff that greets every customer” and for “designing creative insurance plans, while maintaining a reasonable cost for employers.”

“Our entire company is built around providing the best customer service,” says Russ Carlson, president of BeneServ. “This award recognizes the programs we have put in place and the emphasis we have put on excellent service.”

Center City Proprietors Association was founded in 1978 to foster communication, cooperation, education and services among the small businesses of Center City Philadelphia.
